

CITY VIEW

To make Shenzhen a vital, scenic and creative place to live, visit and play, China Daily and the Shenzhen bureau of city administration are conducting a joint survey. Thirty attractions are listed online for you to vote on at <http://211.147.20.198/dyh/index.shtml>.

Furong Civic Greenway

福荣都市绿道

A zigzagging path on the edge of the street, a quiet lane through lush bushes and a spacious courtyard off the main street are the beautiful sceneries of the Furong Civic Greenway in Futian district. The greenway has been innovatively designed along one side of the busiest streets in the district to connect Xiasha, Shangsha and Shazui areas. It is parallel to the residential area, providing a wonderful spot for leisure and recreation. It is a great use of city space although concrete walls are increasingly squashing community parks.

Coastal Plank Path of Dameisha

盐田海滨栈道

The newly built Coastal Plank Path in Dameisha starts from Yantian Eastern Bay in the west and reaches Dameisha Beach Park in the east. It faces the magnificent sea and overlooks lush mountains in the distance. The path has been built on rocky and steep terrain. It is a recreational area, combining leisure, physical exercise, sightseeing and nature. Culture has become the city's visiting card for ecology and humanism.

Binhai area 滨海片区

Binhai area is located at the south of Bao'an district. It is the economic and commercial center of Bao'an. Traffic here is especially convenient. There is easy access to subway stations and it's only about 20 minutes by bus to the Shenzhen airport. It will also become the sports center for Bao'an district because of Bao'an stadium, which is one of the most important venues for the Universiade Games. The environment is particularly delightful. Green trees and colorful flowers can be seen everywhere.
